Seven Graduates Steer 1948 Fortune Of the Auburn Alumni Association

Without its capable leaders the Auburn Alumni Association could not have attained that present size and significance which place it among the leading alumni organizations of the United States. The policy-forming executive committee, which has steered the Association this year, is composed of William S. Hurst, '08, Frank S. McFaden, '21, E. Russell Moulton, '24, Clyde A. Pruitt, '25, T. A. Russell, Jr., '39, and Guy M. Spearman, '14. William F. Byrd, '21, President of the Alumni Association, serves as chairman of the executive committee.

W. S. Hurst

William S. "Bill" Hurst received his pre-college education at his birthplace: Furman, Alabama. At Furman's High School, Mr. Hurst played baseball, but he "had never seen a football" before coming to Auburn.

At API, he studied for a pharmaceutical career, having done previous work in that line, and played baseball under Mike Donahue. He also participated in another of Auburn's great sports in that day, wrestling.

After graduating, Mr. Hurst "went to work" and "has been working ever since." He has been Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue at Talladega since August of 1933, and is a member of many Talladega organizations, including the Auburn Club of Talladega, the Lions Club, of which he is past president, and the Talladega Shrine Club, of which he is president. Mr. Hurst is on the Board of Stewards of the Talladega Methodist Church, and is a York Shriner and a Scottish Rite Shriner.

Mr. Hurst is married to the former Lola Robson, who attended Judson College.

F. S. McFaden

Born in Speigner, Alabama, F. S. "Mac" McFaden attended Sydney Lanier high school in Montgomery, where he played three years of basketball, two years of football, and baseball. His early basketball training enabled him to play on the varsity team at Auburn for four years, from 1917-21.

Having graduated from API, Mr. McFaden was connected with the U. S. Engineers for one year and then with the Alabama highway department for three years. Since 1925, he has been in building construction work.

Mr. McFaden is past president of the Montgomery Lions Club, of the Montgomery Engineers Club, and of the Auburn Club of Montgomery. He also holds membership in the Montgomery Country Club. His wife is the former Elizabeth Clay, a graduate of Huntingdon and the University of Alabama. They have two children: Betty Ruth, 20, who is a sophomore at Randolph-Macon, and Frank Sidney, Jr., who is a sophomore at Sidney Lanier High School.

E. R. Moulton

Reared in Mobile, Alabama, E. Russell Moulton entered Auburn in 1920, after having attended Spring Hill College for one year. He played in all of API's major sports of the early 1920s and was a member of Mike Donahue's All-Time Auburn Baseball Team.

From 1925-29, Mr. Moulton was an Assistant Coach at API. He served his alma mater as Head Baseball Coach in 1928-29, and produced the champion team of the SEC in 1928. At present, Mr. Moulton is Superintendent and Athletic Director of the Pepperell Schools at Lindale, Ga.

He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity, Blue Key, and ODK at API. His other organizational affiliations include the Grand Lodge of Ga., of which he is Deputy Grand Master, F. and A. M., the National Education Association, of which he has been vice president, and Georgia Education Association, of which he was president in 1946.

Mr. Moulton is married to the former Clara Ellen Yarbrough and has three children, John L., Clara E., and Patsy A. Moulton.

Alumnus of the Month

WILLIAM F. BYRD, '21, May Alumnus of the Month, is President of the Auburn Alumni Association and Vice-President of the Alabama Pipe Company.

William F. Byrd '21, Serves Auburn As President of Alumni Association

President of the Auburn Alumni Association William Fitzhugh Byrd, '21, is API's Alumnus of the Month. Affectionately nicknamed "Bill" by his friends, Mr. Byrd has for many years devoted much time and energy toward building his alma mater into a greater institution. With his solid white hair and his sincere personality, Bill Byrd looks more like a saint than a businessman and Vice President of the Alabama Pipe Company. One cause of Bill's success has probably been his employment of sincerity in life.

President Byrd has always yelled Auburn teams to victory, regardless of the sport, under way. The 1921 Glomerata said of him: "Never missed a day on the bleachers." And Bill to this day attends Auburn games when his strenuous work will let him do it.

The '21 Glomerata described Mr. Byrd to a T. It says: "The one appellation that we could find to describe Coach (Bill's other nickname) is this: he is a true Sportman. He hasn't missed a day on the bleachers since the day he entered Auburn, and has seen most of the games, whether they were played on the campus or at Birmingham or anywhere else. Teddy Roosevelt's tales of hunting in Africa are tame compared to some that Coach can tell of his adventures in the swamps near Tuscaloosa. Neither is his "line" limited to hunting tales alone, for he can hold his own in any kind, type, shape, or variety of "bullparty" that ever was originated. Montieith owes a lot of his wealth to him, for the day has never passed that Coach didn't absorb from two to twenty of his sandwiches. He dislikes dressing up and everything else that is artificial, this probably being the reason why he took Ag. After he has the old sheepskin locked away safely in somebody's vault, he and A. D. Bell are going to plant an apple orchard on Sand Mountain and visit it once a year on their trips around the world."

We don't know whether Bill has his apple orchard on Sand Mountain, but we do know that his habit of eating Monteith sandwiches in college had no ill effects upon him. For Bill Byrd today has the physique of a man 30 years of age.

Something New in Samford

A News Bureau bulletin board was recently installed in Samford Hall. On each morning during the week front pages of The Montgomery Advertiser and The Birmingham News are posted, and notices on API appearing in state papers are changed almost daily.

Clyde A. Pruitt

Clyde A. Pruitt is an expert in two sports, baseball and football; he served as captain of his high school basketball team and as alternate captain of the Auburn football team while attending college here.

Mr. Pruitt studied secondary education at API, having already decided on an educational career, because of a desire to coach athletics. While in college, he affiliated with Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity, O.D.K. honor fraternity, the Glee Club, and the "A" Club, serving as president of the last-mentioned.

His present organizational affiliations include the Rotary Club, the Masons, and the American Legion in Tallahassee, Ala., where Mr. Pruitt is connected with the Tallahassee school system as principal. Mr. Pruitt is also a Shriner.

He is married to the former Alma Doss and has two children, Clyde A., Jr., and Kitty.

T. A. Russell

One of Auburn's gridiron great, T. A. "Bo" Russell, '39, is now with the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., with his offices located in Birmingham.

While a student at Auburn, "Bo" was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, Spades, ODK, Scabbard and Blade, the "A" Club, and "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." He is today a member of the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Quarterback Club, the Lion's Club, the Reserve Officer's Association, Life Underwriters Association, and the Jefferson County Auburn Club.

Mr. Russell served with distinction as a captain during World War II, taking part in the most hazardous New Guinea battles. He and his battery of artillerymen had a field day in the New Guinea campaign, blasting Jap pillboxes and mountain strongholds with their medium artillery pieces.

"Bo" made the Associated Press's second mythical eleven in 1938, and, after graduating from Auburn, he played professional football with the Washington Redskins. While with the Redskins he blocked two punts in succession from the educated toe of Kentucky's All-American Ralph Kercheval, who was then with Brooklyn. On the second blocking, before Brooklyn realized that their ace kicker had ciation last October, Bill had already served for one year on the Executive Committee of the Association. For many years before that, he had been President of the Gadsden Auburn Club. Hence, he was well-fitted to execute the duties of one of API's most important jobs—a job which gives much work and no pay.

Bill, whose business offices are in Gadsden, Alabama, is Vice President of the Alabama Pipe Company and a member of its board of directors. He is a member of the Gadsden Board of Education, of the Board of Deacons of Gadsden's First Presbyterian Church, and he was a member of his town's Selective Service Board during World War II.

Married to the former Vassar Turner, of Gadsden, Bill has two sons, William F., Jr., who is a junior in civil engineering at API, and Richard Turner.

Auburn feels that it is fitting to dedicate this issue of The Alumnews to an alumnus who has faithfully served his alma mater—William F. "Bill" Byrd.

been blocked, "Bo" scored a touchdown.

Mr. Russell is married to the former Ann Lutz, of Birmingham. They have two daughters, Linda Ann, five years of age, and Patricia Jean, 15 months old. Mr. Russell calls them: future Auburn cheerleaders.

Guy M. Spearman

When Guy Maxwell Spearman, '14, attended API, there were only two or three co-eds out of about 2000 or 2500 students. After describing the Auburn of his college days, Mr. Spearman remarked: "There have been a lot of changes."

Receiving his degree in mechanical engineering, Guy Spearman accepted a position with the American Cast Iron Pipe Company, in Birmingham, where he worked for three years. He next entered the engineering department of T.C.L., and left his desk there after several years to buy his own business, the Boyd Manufacturing Co. In 1928, he "sold out" and went to southeastern Alabama, in order to build a chain of ice and cold storage plants. After having remained there for three years, he sold out again, travelled to Pensacola, Fla., took over the Crystal Ice Co., and later founded the Spear-

By Frank Pickens

This month the API Radio Club has been going ahead with plans to get a rig on the air this quarter or the first of the summer quarter. John Howell, W4KVQ, has completed a six element, two meter beam instead of the four element beam originally planned. The club will be on two meters with a 522 transmitter and a VHF 152A receiver. Horizontal polarization will be used.

By far the most important happening of this month is the receiving of a new call by Professor Grady Saunders, '43. His call received May 4, 1948, is W4NQH. Application is being made for the call W4API for the club. Another new call is W4NQA, received by Hubert Harris.

Frank O'Kelley, W4NIA, was appointed publicity committee chairman for the Radio Club. Frank's duties include the writing of articles for The Plainsman about the activities of the club.

Most interesting of the activities of the Radio Club this month is a "Miles per Watt" contest. There will be four weekly contests to see who will be able to work the most miles per watt of transmitter power. Prizes will be awarded the winners of each of the weekly contests.

Hank Heitt, W4MIH, won the first weekly contest, and at the time of writing, Stan Owen, W4LHV, is well ahead in this week's contest. Hank won by working Conn. with a power of 24.5 watts. This week Stan has worked numerous European stations and New Zealand with a power of only eight watts. Stan's best is New Zealand, which gives him a little over 1000 miles per watt.

A long letter was received from Lawson Young '47, W4MXY. He says that most of his work is now on two meters. His two meter rig is a 522 transmitter, a folded dipole antenna, and a homemade converter. Thanks a lot for the letter, "Bud," and an answer is on the way.

A few months ago the official amateur radio journal QST reported that Bob Avery, W4MBA, was on 20 meter CW with an 807 and was getting very good results. Are you still working DX on two meters, Bob?

We would like to hear from any former student of Auburn who is an amateur radio operator. Write to The Auburn Alumnews, % The Auburn Alumni Association, or to F. T. Pickens, W4LJF, Box 1149, Auburn.

Is Everybody Happy?

By Harry M. (Happy) Davis
Executive Secretary
Auburn Alumni Association

"IF YOU ARE GOING TO BUILD HIGH YOU MUST DIG DEEP"

Somewhere in this issue we have presented the results of our Greater Auburn Fund program for the year 1947-48. These figures are rather disclosing, but perhaps an explanation would make the figures more readily understandable. This was the first annual Greater Auburn Fund program in the history of our newly organized Auburn Alumni Association. Perhaps we should start by explaining that the Association is not yet in a position to undertake a program of this nature. There are still about 3 more years of "digging" before we shall have our records properly established. On the other hand, so many of the alumni were anxious to help, that we started with a comparatively successful program for the first venture.

First, we show that 9,158 received communications concerning the 47-48 program. Since August, 1947 (the date of mailing), nearly 3500 additional alumni have been added to our files. However, the figure 9,158 can be termed the number solicited. Of this number 1420 responded by contributing on or before March 31, 1948. Sixteen percent of those receiving the notice contributed. This figure (16%) is rather encouraging. By comparison with other institutions we would probably find that on our very first effort we were about average in the percentage contributing. So you are to be congratulated on that score. But here comes the sad part of the story. The average amount contributed by each alumnus receiving the notice was $1.01. This figure is extremely low if we compare it with average contributions of other institutions. Other institutions average about $12.50 per alumnus. Now let's clarify one thing—our figure of $1.01 is not the average amount contributed by those who donated. This latter figure would run considerably higher.

Here are some of the important things for you to note. The Greater Auburn Fund is an annual program. You and your classmates are now probably a little more conscious of your class rating and will probably want to do better next time. Alumni of other schools contribute tremendous sums to their Alma Mater each year, mostly as an expression of their loyalty. On the other hand, if the school is bettered—and it will be by these contributions—the donors in a sense are the real recipients. We must maintain our prestige. These contributions are to aid in the development of the things that will make the real Auburn—the Auburn that you have dreamed about: an educational institution of lasting respect.

"BUT IF YOU'RE GOING TO BUILD HIGH YOU MUST DIG DEEP"

When passing through LaFayette, Alabama, take a good look at the "new look" on Collins Drug Store Building. The store is owned and operated by George Bowling, '17. You guessed right, it's the prettiest orange and blue you ever saw and very neatly done we'd say.

Hugh Cottle, '34, the new President of the Montgomery Club, and Flynn Hudson, '28, the Montgomery Club's chairman of Programs came by the Alumni Office recently. We're preparing their program for the quarter.

Dr. Jimmy Acree '46, from Jacksonville, Florida, was in on Club business. Jacksonville is picking up according to word from down that way.

Mimi Sims, '46, is still with the Huntsville Times in Huntsville, Alabama. Howdy, Scoop! We saw her recently at a Huntsville meeting.

We're anxious for May 20. That's when DeKalb County gets together for an afternoon and night session. Practically every member in DeKalb is a paid up alumnus by now. That's a record for anybody.

Would you please comment? Your Executive Secretary is attempting to work out a program with the college whereby the Alumni will be able to attend seminar sessions sometime during the summer. Alumni Hall has been set aside for rooms and meals at a very nominal sum. All we need to know is whether or not the Alumni would be interested in a "refresher" and if so, what subjects you prefer. Plans are in a very tentative stage, but let us hear from you.

Foster Haley (center), who received his diploma at the end of last quarter, is the fifth member of the Haley family to become an Auburn graduate. Pictured with him are, left to right, Lawrence B. Haley, '32, Robert P. Haley, '46, both of Birmingham; Mrs. Foster A. Haley, '40 (the former Ann Moon); and Paul S. Haley, Jasper, member of Auburn's board of trustees. Foster is now doing graduate work in journalism at the University of Alabama.

Auburn Tigers Will Tangle With 'Bama For First Time in Over 40 Years

Auburn will once more meet the University of Alabama on the gridiron next December 4. The resumption of athletic relations was announced on May 8 by Acting President Ralph Draughon of API, and Dr. John M. Gallalee, president of the University. Not only will the school varsity teams struggle it out under the two-year contract arrangement, but freshman football teams will collide annually, too.

The joint statements issued by Presidents Draughon and Gallalee after their meeting in Montgomery follows:

"The presidents of University of Alabama and Auburn Polytechnic Institute, with full concurrence of athletic authorities of their respective institutions, hereby announce jointly that these institutes have decided to resume athletic relations with each other in the Fall of 1948.

"We realize that there will be perplexing problems as there have been in states where the major institutions engage each other in athletic competition, but athletic authorities of Auburn and the University have met in joint conferences and tried to anticipate possible difficulties and to provide solutions for them.

"It is our unanimous and considerate conviction that all games between Auburn and the University should be played as soon as possible, on the home and home basis, just as such games are played in other states. There are good reasons why all college games should be played on college campuses, and, in our judgment, there are particular reasons why games between major institutions in same state should be played on their respective campuses.

"Freshmen football games between Auburn and the University will be played from the outset on this home and home basis. "A two-year-old football contract will soon be arranged by the athletic authorities of the two institutions. The first game will be played Dec. 4, 1948. Games in other sports will be arranged in due course.

"The responsible athletic officials of the two institutions will meet jointly and in mutual agreement on all significant matters pertaining to their athletic relations."

Dr. Jerry J. Callis is with the Purdue University Agricultural Experiment Station, in Lafayette, Indiana.

Sports

In Brief

By Bob Ingram

The month of April saw the Tigers of Auburn continue their climb to the top of the ladder of success in the field of sports. In baseball, the Tigers copped five wins out of seven, in track two wins out of three, in tennis six wins out of eight, and the golf team is still in the unbeaten class. Those are the headlines; now for the details.

In baseball, the month opened on a sour note as Charlie Trippi brought his Georgia Bulldogs over to the Plains and pounded out an 11-2 victory over our Tigers. The second game of the series was rained out. Next on the agenda for the Tigers was a two-game series in Atlanta with Georgia Tech. After copping the opener on Nixon's pitching, 11-4, the Plainsmen bowed in defeat in the finale, 10-8. Back home again, the Tigers entertained the University of Florida nine in a two-game series. Nixon's five-hitter won the opener 12-1, and Hill and Finlayson teamed up to win the second, 9-5. Following this series the Tigers journeyed to Knoxville where they met and defeated twice the hapless University of Tennessee nine. Nixon pitched a beautiful one-hitter to win the opener 12-0, getting four hits himself, including a home run and a double, to aid his own cause. George Hill scattered 11 hits effectively in the second game, to win 12-4. These wins put Auburn near the top in their race for the SEC championship. Incidentally, Willard Nixon's record now is five won, 0 lost. In the 45 innings he has worked, he has allowed only 17 hits and five runs. Pretty fair pitching in anybody's league.

The Auburn track team also added to their laurels during the past month. In the first dual meet of the season they administered a crushing defeat to the visiting Mississippi State Maroons. The following Saturday they handled the University of Georgia in an even ruder manner, chasing them completely off the field. But it couldn't last. The neighboring University of Florida came into town determined to win, and that is just what they did. In a thrilling meet that was in doubt down to the very last event, the Gators edged by the Plainsman 65½ to 60½. Auburn's weakness in the field events was a big factor in the Florida victory. This defeat did not lower hopes of Auburnites for a possible championship team this year, for in men like Overton, Carley, Pennington, DeMedicis, Walker, Morrisett, Brnilovitch, and others, this Auburn team has plenty of point-making possibilities.

Auburn's tennis team has lost only to Georgia Tech and Florida in eight starts. A picture of this fine team is shown elsewhere on this page. In golf, it has been the same old story—just too much Auburn. The golf team has yet to taste defeat.

Things are definitely on the upgrade here at Auburn. This new Auburn Tiger with the sharpened claws and teeth has gotten a taste of victory, and it is a savory taste indeed. All opponents of Auburn, whether they be on diamond, cinder path, court, or even the gridiron, had better read and beware.

You can't tell it from here, but you can take it from us that Auburn's Jack DeMedicis (above right) won this 220 low hurdles in the dual meet held at Auburn. In this final and deciding event, Florida's Williams, who is running neck and neck with DeMedicis, and Ennis came in second and third to garner enough points to defeat the Plainsman. Members of Auburn's Tennis Team
